BIO

Andrea has an extensive list of credits in television, movies, video, advertising, and fashion industries. Her 25+ years of experience include pre-production planning, television appearances, special events, galas, weddings, fashion commercials, print advertisements, and direction of artistic staff. Her services include on-set touchups and complete hair and makeup for television and film productions. Andrea has extensive experience as a key makeup artist and assistant and is able to maintain continuity through detailed character photos and logs. Her work in special effects has garnered her several awards.

As a seasoned professional, she collaborates with the full spectrum of the creative team to achieve desired outcomes. Not only is she valued for her artistic talents but also for her ability to keep the project moving forward. Andrea's clients have included members of the political, corporate and entertainment A-list. Her superior ability to manage "difficult" situations and personalities with grace and diplomacy, without compromising her professional standards, sets her apart from many in her field.

Andrea is the studio photographers' best friend as she has the creative style and flair to bring out the very best in their models based on specific lighting conditions. She creates stunning effects for makeup and hair, suitable for anything from corporate to fantasy shoots. Even after the hair and makeup are completed, she stays on set to ensure everything flows perfectly, ready to jump in at any time for touchups as needed.

Her impeccable credentials include extensive self-teaching through years of working with some of the most respected makeup artists in the industry, as well as specialized training and an expansive knowledge of cosmetic products. Andrea got her grassroots start in the artistry business as a representative with numerous cosmetics lines, such as MAC, Lancôme, Chanel and Bobbi Brown and served on the Perspectives national team responsible for launching new products. She completed an in-depth program sanctioned by International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees (IATSE) under the tutelage of Joe Blasco. She successfully passed union-administered test to ensure make-up application methods meet industry standards. Andrea devoted three years as a representative of Luminess Air, creating marketing campaigns to include photo shoots, TV info commercials and training / selling tools.
