

Comedy and Improv Workshop October 13, 2018

New scenes! New games! This workshop will be a combination of improv skills I've learned by studying at Second City and the Groundlings, and an exploration of comedy and how to find the funny in your scenes. We'll explore different kinds of comedy, comedy 'rules' and comic timing. We'll be using scripts from sit-coms and comedic films. I'm fresh from my classes in LA so I have a lot to share. All students will receive videos of their scene work via e-mail.
