

Brian Thornton's up and coming Class and Orientation June 4th. Class starts THAT WEEK following the orientation

I teach is a psychological process that EVERY human does every day of their lives (you are doing it now, as you read this). It protects us, nurtures us, tricks us, connects us...or disconnects us. It's powerful because it drives humanity.

I have openings for a new wave of 6-8 actors (you get one-on-one deep work every class)

Seminar/ORIENTATION, mandatory for new students but open for Public: Saturday June 4th from 10 AM-2 PM ($30 for enrolling students, $150 for non-enrolled)
