

AUDITION WORKSHOP ANNOUNCEMENT

One advantage to self-isolating during a global pandemic is that many of us are using this time to hone our craft! To assist you in this endeavor, Vicky Boone Casting will soon be offering a workshop to give actors further insight into the casting process and how to kill in-person auditions for films and TV! We'll share what you can do to stand out, how to amp up your acting game, and more!

Currently, these workshops are designed for teens ages 12 - 18 and adults 19+. If we have an interest in kids ages 8 - 11 we may open up another workshop!

A few of the hot topics we'll cover:

- >> What directors are looking for and how you can deliver it
 - >> Adding character layers to your scenes and taking adjustments
 - >> Making a good impression on a casting team (important, if we do say so ourselves 😊)
- ...And many other tips and tricks for bringing your A-game to a narrative audition. We'll be offering these workshops via Zoom for both BEGINNER and INTERMEDIATE acting levels (but you'll all be in pro territory in no time)!
