She also has received awards for her work on stage, developing premiere works in Los Angeles and in New York with The Canyon Theatre Company, along with name actors such as Mark Ruffalo and Kathy Bates. Recently she has played opposite Lance Henriksen in Spirit Riders, Jen Kirkman in her Netflix comedy special and Mike Doyle in The Last Word.

“Carol Hickey is one of the most naturally gifted people I have ever had the privilege and distinct pleasure of working with. She has, above and beyond normal, a natural child-like innocence, an unlimited imagination, and a vulnerability that has no boundaries. Anyone who has the good fortune to work with Carol, in any capacity, is truly privileged and on track to develop into becoming an actor of stature. It takes a lot of hard work and discipline, but with Carol as a guide, example, and mentor you are well on your way.” - Harry Mastrogeorge

The workshop will focus on defining the job of an actor and the disciplined practice of training the imagination to create a second reality using the script as a road map. Mastering this technique the student becomes self-reliant and can create a truly realistic performance that has profound resonance and dimension. This class will guide the student to a professional level that results in booking more work!
