Strong improv skills are a huge plus when it comes to booking. Some of our most notable comedic actors and commercial personalities have a background in improv (Will Ferrell, Melissa McCarthy, 'Flo' from the Progressive commercials, to name a few.) Learn how to listen deeply and react on the fly! This workshop will include commercial improv scenarios requested for self-tapes as well as fun games and exercises culled from my training with the Groundlings and Second City. You won't want to miss it! www.saragaston.com/classes-2
