Many people are asking when the script analysis class for the public will be held!

Wednesday October 21 at 7:30 - Wednesday Nov 4, 2020

Script analysis is integral to what any actor learns. If you have an agent but aren't booking. If you want an agent but can't seem to get noticed. If you are booking one-liners and co-star roles but want to move to guest star roles YOU NEED A SCRIPT ANALYSIS CLASS!

The way you interpret a scene is the foundation for how you will play it!!

THINK ABOUT THAT!

If your interpretation is weak it won't get noticed just on looks.
