

THE NATURAL ACT WORKSHOP

ACCESSING EMOTIONS FOR THE ON CAMERA ACTOR

The Natural Act Presents: ACCESSING EMOTIONS FOR THE ON CAMERA ACTOR. Actor/Producer/Coach/ Director, PRICE HALL (MISSISSIPPI MURDER starring Malcolm McDowell & Luke Goss), and author (MAKING CHOICES: The Actor's Guide to Being Alive & Present in the Work) offers one of the most unique opportunities for the On-Camera Actor to gain access to truthful and organic emotions on 'cue', under any and all circumstances. The goal of this Workshop is to instill a new-found confidence and excitement in the Actor in knowing they can fulfill the requirements of any character's emotional life. This access and control is vital for the fast pace of working for the camera, be it for television or film. The emotions the actor needs to access must be truthful. You cannot fool the camera.

This Workshop is a Workout for the Actor wanting to master the techniques, which can provide ready access to truthful emotion. We will work with your triggers, tear down inhibitions, and go as far as you are willing to go in order to access your deepest, profound, and thought provoking emotions.

Through exercises and prepared scene work, participants will be led to an understanding of how one accesses and connects to real emotion, and a logical, real world way to 'bring it' to the work. Then they will step in front of the camera, with a prepared scene, and be directed to have it happen on 'cue'. Take after take. This Workshop is an experience that will leave the Actor Breathless, Exhilarated, and Fearless... and ready for anything they can throw at you. Join us. SPACES ARE LIMITED.
