

Will Wallace Acting Workshop Houston

Hollywood Indy director/producer, Will Wallace, is coming to back Texas to teach an acting workshop in Houston on Friday, July 8th specifically on material for a film shooting in Texas at the end of July. Director of the film, George Bennett, will be in attendance for the workshop. Will currently maintains four on-going classes in Hollywood & has taught workshops in various cities including: London, Sydney, Miami, & Seattle (to name a few). He also privately coaches a large number of working actors in LA.

Will Wallace Bio:

Will most recently produced, "Warning Shot" starring Bruce Dern, David Spade, & James Earl Jones, which shot in Corsicana, TX . Will is also in post-production on "Trafficked", which he directed, starring: Ashley Judd, Anne Archer & Patrick Duffy. Will has produced, written, and directed over a dozen award-winning films. He is currently a producer at Sunflower Films with Terrence Malick and Edward Pressman in Los Angeles. Will produced and directed, "Red Wing", a Sunflower film, starring: Bill Paxton, Frances Fisher & Luke Perry, which garnered a limited theatrical release and sold to Warner Brothers for on Demand distribution. As an actor, Will has played roles in on over 40 films including: "The Thin Red Line", "I Am Sam", "Rules of Engagement", "The New World", "Broke Sky", and "Tree of Life". Some of Will's TV credits include "Leverage", "Beverly Hills 90210" (Both Series), "Baywatch", and "Pensacola: Wings of Gold".

Class Information:

This workshop will focus on comedy character development from the upcoming film with an emphasis on learning to make interesting choices which can potentially separate you from the masses. Will has invited the director of the film to sit in on class as his guest and you guys will get to work on scenes from the script. Please note that attendance of the workshop is not a guarantee of a role in the film. It's simply an opportunity to workshop new material and get feedback and direction from the producer and director. The class will also incorporate improv drills and additional exercises to stretch the actor's instincts.

Class Date & Time: Friday, July 8th from 7:00pm-10:00pm.
